MALFROY

MAISON FONDÉE EN 1939

Silk designer manufacturer for over three generations, Maison Malfroy is recognized for its uniqueness and the quality of its products.

CREATION AND KNOW-HOW

We offer collections of scarves and accessories made in France and Europe. From the creation process to the French-style hand-rolled finishing, we believe above all in quality products and in a responsible manufacturing process. Malfroy scarves tell a colorful and joyful story. Our patterns in the collection are imagined by our own designers.

This season, we chose to explore the theme of wildlife through the depiction of various animals, while continuing our tribute to inspiring women with the figure of Sarah Bernhardt. We are also welcoming a guest artist, Malin Gyllensvaan, who offers hand-painted works inspired by the Arts and Crafts movement and botanical illustrations.

Our heritage is highlighted with a Heritage theme, which brings Malfroy archive designs back into the spotlight.

We have refreshed our Polka Dot theme and are continuing our licensed collaboration with The Little Prince.

WILDLIFE COLLECTION

With this collection, I wanted to celebrate the ancient and essential bond that unites humans and animals. Since prehistoric times, animals have inhabited our imagination and become symbols—almost totems—embodying strength, grace, or protection.

The Fauna theme follows in this continuity, reinterpreting figures that resonate deeply with people. The majesty of the peacock, the power of the horse, the elegance of the cat, the loyalty of the dog, and the wild instinct of felines come to life on silk, each revealing a part of our own nature.

Each scarf thus becomes a living setting, a way to wear an intimate symbol — almost a familiar presence — nestled within the fabric.

Maison Malfroy is today a story written in the feminine. For several years now, the team and management of our family business have become more female. Together, we wanted to create a collection in which the scarf becomes a standard—the standard of an inspired and inspiring femininity.

Women did not wait for our era to be creative, powerful, erudite, or courageous. Sarah Bernhardt and the “Belle Époque,” the period during which her fame blossomed, are in the spotlight this season. The first actress to achieve worldwide renown, her career lived up to her boldness. Portraying both the Eaglet and Cleopatra, the woman known as “the Divine” captivated audiences as much for her talent as for her extravagance.

MALIN GYLLENSVAAN COLLECTION

Malin Gyllensvaan is a textile designer and illustrator based in Stockholm, Sweden, known for her intricate designs featuring flowers, animals and plants.

She has a passion for gouache and graphite pencil and often combines the two in her work. Her focus on colour and texture creates lush, ethereal, and exotic pieces that she hopes will transport the viewer into a world of natural beauty and wonder, evoking a sense of calm and serenity.

She draws inspiration from a variety of sources, including vintage botanical illustrations and the patterns of the Arts and Crafts Movement. Her work is characterised by a deep appreciation for the natural world and a keen eye for detail.

Over the years, her creations have adorned everything from art prints, stationery, puzzles, packaging, textiles for both home and fashion, as well as illustrations for books.

For several seasons now, Maison Malfroy has chosen to showcase its heritage and history by bringing new value to its archives and historic designs. Our design studio has undertaken a process of selecting and reinterpreting these artworks to give them a modern touch. Through digitization, the creation of new colorways, and the subtle addition of graphic elements, these designs come back to life. This season, two designs have caught our attention: one square featuring a leopard motif and two squares with floral patterns.

LYON COLLECTION

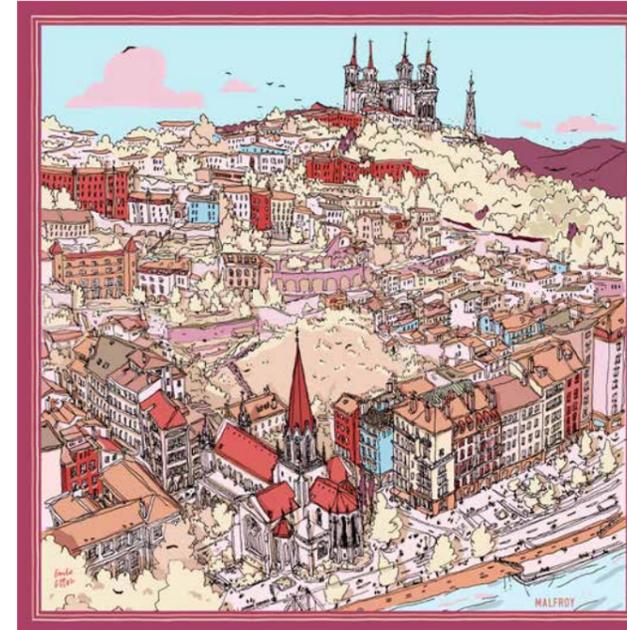

Maison Malfroy is committed to celebrating its legacy. Our expertise is deeply rooted in the city where we were born — Lyon — a place that has perfected the art of silk weaving and printing for centuries. Our designers draw immense inspiration from the city they live in. Its spirit, its events, and above all, its magnificent monuments are reflected throughout this collection dedicated to the City of Silk. Those familiar with Lyon will recognize some of its most iconic landmarks woven into these designs.

COLLECTION LE PETIT PRINCE

For the 80 years anniversary of the little prince, Maison Malfroy designed a collection of scarfs that represent this unique and well-known character loved by so many children and grownups.

Our designs are very poetic, they have a taste of childhood memories and daydream. Wearing our scarfs is a way to carry with you the value of friendship dear to Antoine of Saint-Exupéry.

MUSEUM COLLECTION

We are proud to present our collection “The Great Painters”. A selection of scarves that carry the power of universally acclaimed artworks. We have chosen not to reinterpret or alter the selected masterpieces — instead, we enhance them with a touch of color, framing them with a border or a subtle French-style rolled hem, done either by hand or machine. Offer your clients the chance to wear art on silk!
