MALFROY

MAISON FONDÉE EN 1939

Silk designer manufacturer for over three generations, Maison Malfroy is recognized for its uniqueness and the quality of its products.

CREATION AND KNOW-HOW

We offer collections of scarves and accessories made in France and Europe. From the creation process to the French-style hand-rolled finishing, we believe above all in quality products and in a responsible manufacturing process. Malfroy scarves tell a colorful and joyful story. Our patterns in the collection are imagined by our own designers.

This season, we bring you an exotic collection that captures the spirit of summer and sunshine, while paying tribute to an inspiring woman: Loie Fuller.

We are pleased to collaborate with the artist Lulu la Nantaise, who presents her works in a bold and expressive graphic style.

Our heritage is showcased through a «Heritage» theme, which breathes new life into archive designs from Malfroy.

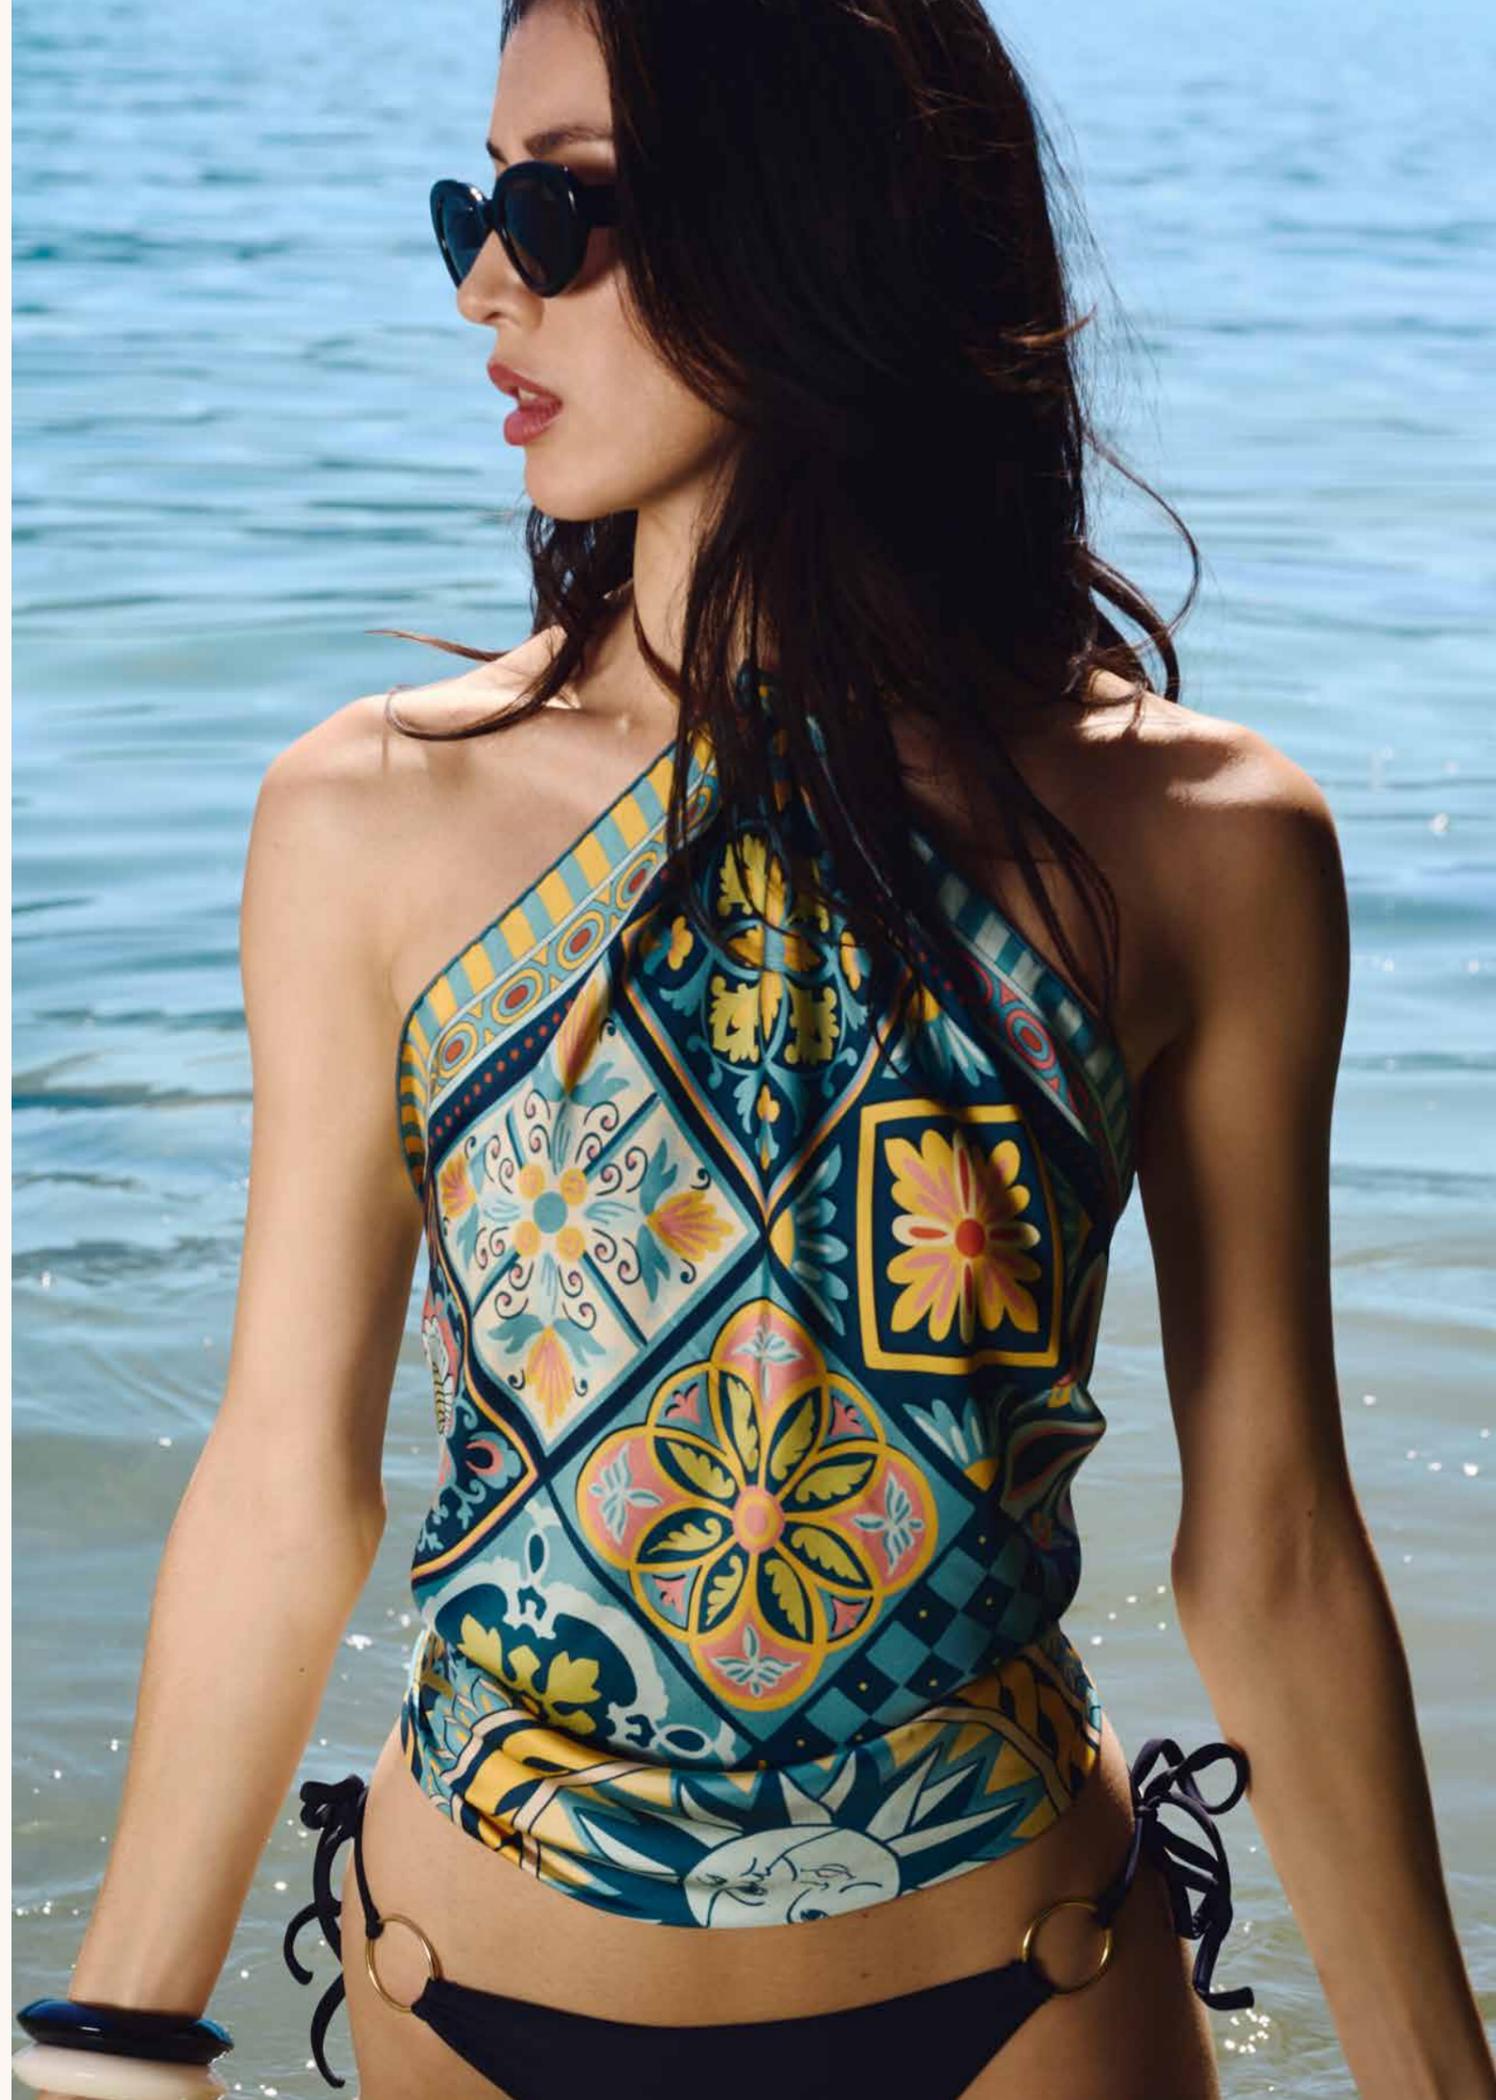

We are also continuing our Museum collection, along with our Le Petit Prince licensed collection.

HOLIDAY COLLECTION

This season, Maison Malfroy is setting sail and bringing you an exotic collection that evokes summer and sunshine. From Rio to the Amalfi Coast, with a stop in Marrakech, we've chosen to take you on a journey across continents. These sun-drenched getaways have inspired us with their rich colors and vibrant patterns. These creations are a true invitation to daydream and unwind.

INSPIRING WOMEN COLLECTION

Maison Malfroy is now a story written in the feminine. In recent years, both the team and the leadership of our family-run business have become increasingly female. Together, we felt the desire to create a collection in which the scarf becomes a symbol — the symbol of an inspired and inspiring femininity. Women have never waited for their time to be creative, powerful, knowledgeable, or courageous. This season, we were inspired by the boldness and perseverance of Loie Fuller. A pioneer of contemporary dance, she dared to break conventions and laid the foundation for abstraction in movement. Her famous Serpentine Dance fascinated audiences around the world and inspired the artists of the Belle Époque.

LULU LA NANTAISE COLLECTION

Lulu La Nantaise is an illustrator with a bold and expressive graphic style. She works with strong lines, flat areas of color, and infuses real energy into her drawings. Her universe is inspired by 1950s posters, with a particular taste for impactful compositions. She enjoys creating mischievous characters and loves to hide puns in her images, while playing with lettering.

HERITAGE COLLECTION

For several seasons now, Maison Malfroy has chosen to highlight its heritage and history by bringing new life to its archives and historical designs. Our design studio has carried out a careful process of selection and reinterpretation to give these artworks a contemporary touch. Through digitalization, the creation of new color palettes, and the subtle addition of graphic elements, these designs are brought back to life. This season, two illustrations particularly stood out: a lace-patterned carré and a sample featuring traditional Indian motifs.

LYON COLLECTION

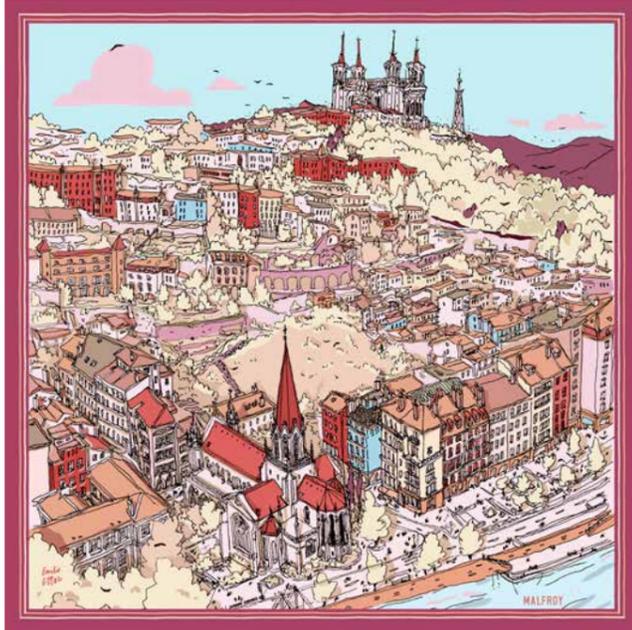

Maison Malfroy is committed to celebrating its legacy. Our expertise is deeply rooted in the city where we were born — Lyon — a place that has perfected the art of silk weaving and printing for centuries. Our designers draw immense inspiration from the city they live in. Its spirit, its events, and above all, its magnificent monuments are reflected throughout this collection dedicated to the City of Silk. Those familiar with Lyon will recognize some of its most iconic landmarks woven into these designs.

THE LITTLE PRINCE COLLECTION

For the 80 years anniversary of the little prince, Maison Malfroy designed a collection of scarfs that represent this unique and well-known character loved by so many children and grownups.

Our designs are very poetic, they have a taste of childhood memories and daydream. Wearing our scarfs is a way to carry with you the value of friendship dear to Antoine of Saint-Exupéry.

MUSEUM COLLECTION

We are proud to present our collection “The Great Painters”. A selection of scarves that carry the power of universally acclaimed artworks. We have chosen not to reinterpret or alter the selected masterpieces — instead, we enhance them with a touch of color, framing them with a border or a subtle French-style rolled hem, done either by hand or machine. Offer your clients the chance to wear art on silk!
